NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort St. George, October 10, 1924

No 338.—The following resolution of the Government of India is republished :—

HOME DEPARTMENT.

PUBLIC.

Simla, the 1*st October* 1924.

No. P. 689.—The following resolution was moved by Mr. Sachchidananda Sinha in the old Imperial Legislative Council on the 20th February 1920 :—

"This Council recommends to the Governor-General in Council that a mixed Committee of non-officials and officials be appointed to formulate a scheme for the amalgamation of the Oriya-speaking tracts at present administered or controlled by the Governments of Madras, Bengal and the Central Provinces, with the existing Orissa Division of the Province of Bihar and Orissa."

And in accordance with the promise then made on behalf of Government much information on the subject has been collected.

2. The most important areas in British India inhabited by Oriya-speaking peoples which are not now included in Orissa are contained in the Ganjam and Vizagapatam districts of the Madras Presidency. The Governor General in Council is not, however, satisfied as to the wishes of the Oriyas in these areas. There may or there may not be a genuine desire on the part of these Oriyas to be amalgamated with the Oriyas of Orissa and it is clear that if there is no such desire further steps towards amalgamation should not be taken at the present juncture. The Governor-General in Council has therefore decided to depute two officers, of whom one should be nominated by the Madras Government to make detailed enquiry on the spot regarding the attitude of Oriya inhabitants of the Madras Presidency towards the question of the amalgamation of the tracts inhabited by them with Orissa. The Governor-General in Council has nominated Mr. C. L. Philip, I.C.S., at present Political Agent, Orissa Feudatory States, and the Government of Madras has nominated Mr. A. C. Duff, I.C.S., at present Collector of Bellary in the Madras Presidency for this duty. These officers will carry out the enquiry jointly and report to the Government of India. The enquiry will begin at once.

Fort St. George, October 15, 1924 (G.O. No 719, Public).

No. 339.—In paragraph 2 (1) (a) of his letter No 1206, dated the 6th June 1924, the Registrar of Co-operative Societies has recommended that Government servants of every class except those employed in the Co-operative Department should be permitted to make investments (i.e., to take shares in or become members of) and to make deposits in non-agricultural societies of all kinds. The local ruling under rule 12 of the Government Servants' Conduct Rules already permits membership in non-agricultural societies, a privilege which includes the making of investments. It was not the intention of the Government to place any restriction on the privilege of Government servants to make deposits in non-agricultural societies. In order to make this clear, the local ruling referred to above will be amended by the insertion of the words 'or make deposits in' between the words 'members of' and 'non-agricultural co-operative societies'.

No. 249 P.T.—The following Order in Council was notified in the London Gazette on the 12th August 1924, and is hereby published for information :—

AT THE COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

THE 12TH DAY OF AUGUST 1924.

Present.

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS at Lausanne, on the 24th day of July, 1923, a Treaty of Peace with Turkey (hereinafter referred to as "The Treaty") was signed on behalf of His Majesty :

AND WHEREAS at Lausanne, on the same date, the conventions, protocols and declaration mentioned in the First Schedule to this Order were also signed on behalf of His Majesty, and at Paris on the 23rd day of November 1923, there was also so signed a convention relating to the assessment and reparation of damage suffered in Turkey by the nationals of the contracting Powers and the protocol annexed thereto :

AND WHEREAS by the Treaty of Peace (Turkey) Act, 1924, it was provided that His Majesty might make such appointments, establish such offices, make such Orders in Council, and do such things as appeared to Him to be necessary for carrying out the Treaty and the said conventions, protocols and declaration, and for giving effect to any of the provisions thereof, and that any Order in Council made under that Act might provide for the imposition, by summary process or otherwise, of penalties in respect of breach of the provisions thereof, and might provide for granting exemption from stamp duty in cases where such exemption was required under the Treaty, and for conferring on courts within His Majesty's Dominions jurisdiction in cases where, under the convention respecting Conditions of Residence and Business and Jurisdiction such courts are alone to have jurisdiction.

AND WHEREAS the Treaty contains the Articles set out in the first column * of Part I of the Second Schedule to this Order (a translation whereof is, for the purpose of convenience, set forth in the second column thereof), and the last mentioned convention contains the Article set out in the first column * of Part II of that Schedule (a translation whereof is, for the purpose of convenience, set forth in the second column thereof), and it is expedient that for the purposes of giving effect thereto the provisions hereinafter contained shall have effect :

AND WHEREAS by Sections 4 and 9 of the Indian Enemy Trading Act, 1915 (XIV of 1915) and Government of India notification No. 3055W. 11, dated 22nd July, 1916, issued under that Act and by Section 7 of the Indian Enemy Trading Act, 1916 (X of 1916), it was provided that the custodians of enemy property appointed under the Indian Enemy Trading Act, 1915, should, subject to the provisions therein mentioned, hold any money paid to and any property vested in them under those Acts, and should deal with the same in such a manner as the Governor General in Council might direct,

AND WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, or other lawful means His Majesty has power and jurisdiction in territories and in regard to persons in India outside British India, and is pleased by virtue of and in exercise of the powers vested in Him by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, and all other powers enabling Him in this behalf, to extend the provisions of this Order to such territories or persons :

Now, THEREFORE His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows :—

1. The Articles of the Treaty set out in Part I of the Second Schedule to this Order shall have full force and effect in law, and for the purpose of carrying out the said Articles the following provisions shall have effect :—

(i) A custodian of enemy property shall, on the direction of the Governor General in Council, pay or transfer any money held by him or property vested in him under the Indian Enemy Trading Acts 1915 and 1916, to any person to whom it is payable or transferable under the Treaty.

(ii) The competent authority for the purposes of Article 70 of the Treaty, in so far as it applies to money or other property in India shall be the custodian of enemy property appointed for the area in which such money or other property is situated or if no such custodian has been appointed, the Governor General in Council.

(iii) All decisions of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal constituted under Section V of Part III of the Treaty, if within the jurisdiction of that tribunal, shall be final and conclusive and binding on all courts ; and any award of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal may be enforced in the principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction of the place where the money or other property is situated in the same manner as a decree obtained in that Court to the same effect.

(iv) For the purpose of enforcing the attendance of witnesses before the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal, wherever sitting whether within or without His Majesty's Dominions, and compelling the production before the tribunal of documents, a Secretary of the Government of India shall have power to issue orders which shall have the like effect as if the proceedings before the tribunal were an action in a court and the order were a formal process issued by that court in the due exercise of its jurisdiction, and disobedience to any such order shall be punishable under the Indian Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860).

(v) The Controller of Patents and Designs shall have power as from the coming into force of the Treaty in cases where patents and designs are revived under the provisions of Article 87 of the Treaty, to impose such conditions as he may deem reasonably necessary for the protection of the rights of third parties who have exploited or made use of patents or designs during the time whilst they had lapsed

* The first column of the Second Schedule which is in French has been omitted.

2 The agreement contained in Article 16 of the Convention respecting Conditions of Residence and Business and Jurisdiction, set out in Part II of the Second Schedule to this Order, shall have full force and effect as law, and for the purpose of carrying out the said agreement the following provisions shall have effect :—

(i) In all cases where, in pursuance of the agreement contained in the said Article 16, courts established in British territory are to have jurisdiction, His Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature in England shall be the court having such jurisdiction, except where the case is one where, apart from this provision, some other court within His Majesty's Dominions would have jurisdiction :

Provided that where, as respects any case jurisdiction as to which is so conferred on His Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature in England, on application being made to the Supreme Court of Cyprus, or to a superior court in any other part of His Majesty's Dominions which may from time to time be authorized for the purpose by an Order in Council under the Treaty of Peace (Turkey) Act, 1924, it is made to appear to that court that the case could be more conveniently tried in that court than in His Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature in England, the Supreme Court of Cyprus, or such other superior court as aforesaid, shall have jurisdiction in the matters, subject to the following qualifications, that is to say :—

(a) where proceedings have been instituted in His Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature in England no such application shall be made without the leave of that court ;

(b) where the matter is one with respect to which the Supreme Court of Cyprus, or the superior court of any other part of His Majesty's Dominions, has not jurisdiction in relation to persons domiciled in Cyprus or that other part as the case may be, nothing in this Article shall authorize applications to be made to, or confer jurisdiction on, that supreme court or superior court.

(ii) The law to be administered in His Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature in England, or the Supreme Court of Cyprus or other such superior court as aforesaid, in any case where jurisdiction is conferred on the court by this Article, shall be the law which would have been applicable to the case under Article 20 of the Ottoman Order in Council, 1910, had the case been tried by a court established by and acting under that Order.

3. The Interpretation Act, 1889, applies for the interpretation of this Order in like manner as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament, and as if this Order were an Act of Parliament.

4. This Order shall apply to India, and shall be deemed to have come into operation as from the date when the Treaty of Peace came into force, that is to say the sixth day of August, nineteen hundred and twenty-four

5. This Order may be cited as "The India Peace Treaty (Turkey) Order, 1924."

Article 57.

Article 58.

Turkey also agrees not to claim from the British Government or its nationals the repayment of the sums paid for the warships ordered in England by the Ottoman Government which were requisitioned by the British Government in 1914, and renounces all claims in the matter.

PART III.

ECONOMIC CLAUSES.

Article 64.

In this part, the expression "Allied Powers" means the Contracting Powers other than Turkey.

The term "Allied nationals" includes physical persons, companies and associations of the Contracting Powers other than Turkey, or of a State or territory under the protection of one of the said Powers.

The provisions of this Part relating to "Allied Nationals" shall benefit persons who, without having the nationality of one of the Allied Powers, have, in consequence of the protection which they in fact enjoyed at the hands of these Powers, received from the Ottoman authorities the same treatment as Allied nationals, and have, on this account, been prejudiced.

SECTION I

PROPERTY, RIGHTS AND INTERESTS.

Article 65.

Property, rights and interests which still exist and can be identified in territories remaining Turkish at the date of the coming into force of the present Treaty, and which belong to persons who on the 29th October, 1914, were Allied nationals, shall be immediately restored to the owners in their existing state.

Reciprocally, property, rights and interests which still exist and can be identified in territories subject to the sovereignty or protectorate of the Allied Powers on the 29th October, 1914, or in territories detached from the Ottoman Empire after the Balkan wars and subject to-day to the sovereignty of any such Power, and which belong to Turkish nationals shall be immediately restored to the owners in their existing state. The same provision shall apply to property, rights and interests which belong to Turkish nationals in territories detached from the Ottoman Empire under the present Treaty, and which may have been subjected to liquidation or any other exceptional measure whatever on the part of the authorities of the Allied Powers.

All property, rights and interests situated in territory detached from the Ottoman Empire under the present Treaty, which, after having been subjected by the Ottoman Government to an exceptional war measure, are now in the hands of the Contracting Power exercising authority over the said territory, and which can be identified, shall be restored to their legitimate owners, in their existing state. The same provision shall apply to immovable property which may have been liquidated by the Contracting Power exercising authority over the said territory. All other claims between individuals shall be submitted to the competent local courts.

All disputes relating to the identity or the restitution of property to which a claim is made shall be submitted to the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal provided for in Section V of this Part.

Article 66.

In order to give effect to the provisions of the first and second paragraphs of Article 65 the High Contracting Parties will, by the most rapid procedure, restore the owners to the possession of their property, rights and interests free from any burdens or encumbrances with which such property, rights and interests may have been charged without the consent of the said owners. It will be the duty of the Government of the Power effecting the restitution to provide for the compensation of third parties who may have acquired the property directly or indirectly from the said Government and who may be injured by the restitution. Disputes which may arise in connection with such compensation shall be dealt with by the ordinary courts.

In all other cases it will be open to any third parties who may be injured to take action against whoever is responsible, in order to obtain compensation.

In order to give effect to these provisions all acts of transfer or other exceptional war measures, which the High Contracting Parties may have carried out in respect of enemy property, rights and interests, shall be immediately cancelled and stayed when liquidation has not yet been completed. Owners who make claims shall be entitled by the immediate restitution of their property, rights and interests as soon as these shall have been identified.

When at the date of the signature of the present Treaty the property, rights and interests the restitution of which is provided for in Article 65 have been liquidated by the authorities of one of the High Contracting Parties, that Party shall be discharged from the obligation to restore the said property, rights and interests by payment of the proceeds of the liquidation to the owner. If, on application being made by the owner, the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal provided for by section V finds that the liquidation was not effected in such conditions as to ensure the realisation of a fair price, it will have the power, in default of agreement between the parties, to order the addition to the proceeds of the liquidation of such amount as it shall consider equitable. The said property, rights and interests shall be restored if the payment is not made within two months from the agreement with the owner or from the decision of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal mentioned above.

Article 70.

Claims based on Articles 65, 66 and 69 must be lodged with the competent authorities within six months, and, in default of agreement, with the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal within twelve months, from the coming into force of the present Treaty.

Article 72.

The British Empire, France, Italy, Roumania and the Serb-Croat-Slovene State or their nationals having begun claims or suits with regard to their property, rights and interests against the Ottoman Government before the 29th October, 1914, the provisions of this Section will not prejudice such claims or suits. Claims or suits begun against the British, French, Italian, Roumanian or Serb-Croat-Slovene Governments by the Ottoman Government or its nationals will similarly not be prejudiced. These claims or suits will be continued against the Turkish Government and against the other Governments mentioned in this Article under the conditions existing before the 29th October 1914, due regard being had to the abolition of the Capitulations.

SECTION II.

CONTRACTS AND PRESCRIPTIONS.

Article 73.

The following classes of contracts concluded, before the date mentioned in Article 82, between persons who thereafter became enemies as defined in that Article, remain in force subject to the provisions of the contracts and to the stipulations of the present Treaty :—

(a) Contracts for the sale of real property, even if all formalities may not have been concluded, provided that delivery did in fact take place before the date on which the parties became enemies as defined in Article 82.

(b) Leases and agreements for leases of land and houses entered into between individuals.

(c) Contracts between individuals regarding the exploitation of mines, forests or agricultural estates.

(d) Contracts of mortgage, pledge or lien.

(e) Contracts constituting companies, excepting "sociétés en nom collectif" which do not constitute, under the law to which they are subject, an entity separate from that of the persons of which they are composed (partnerships).

(f) Contracts, whatever may be their purpose, concluded between individuals or companies and the State, provinces, municipalities or other similar juridical persons charged with administrative functions.

(g) Contracts relating to family status.

(h) Contracts relating to gifts or bounties of any kind whatever.

This Article cannot be invoked in order to give to contracts a validity different from that which they had in themselves when they were concluded.

It does not apply to concessionary contracts.

Article 74.

Insurance contracts are governed by the provisions of the Annex to this Section.

Article 75.

Contracts other than those specified in Articles 73 and 74 and other than concessionary contracts, which were entered into between persons who subsequently became enemies, shall be considered as having been annulled as from the date on which the parties became enemies.

Nevertheless, either of the parties to the contract shall have power, within three months from the coming into force of the present Treaty, to require the execution of the contract, on condition of paying, where the circumstances demand it, to the other party compensation calculated according to the difference between the conditions prevailing at the time when the contract was concluded and those prevailing at the time when its maintenance is required. In default of agreement between the parties, this compensation shall be fixed by the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal.

Article 76.

The validity of all compromises entered into before the coming into force of the present Treaty between nationals of the Contracting Powers, parties to contracts specified in Articles 73 to 75, particularly those providing for the cancellation, the maintenance, the methods of execution, or the modification of such contracts, including agreements relating to the currency of payment or the rate of exchange, is confirmed.

Article 77.

Contracts between Allied and Turkish nationals concluded after the 30th October, 1918, remain in force and will be governed by the ordinary law.

Contracts duly concluded with the Constantinople Government between the 30th October, 1918, and the 16th March, 1920, also remain in force and will be governed by the ordinary law.

All contracts and agreements duly concluded after the 16th March 1920, with the Constantinople Government concerning territories which remained under the effective control of the said Government, shall be submitted to the Grand National Assembly of Turkey for approval, if the parties concerned make application within three months from the coming into force of the present Treaty. Payments made under such contracts shall be duly credited to the party who has made them.

If approval is not granted, the party concerned shall, if the circumstances demand it, be entitled to compensation corresponding to the direct loss which has been actually suffered; such compensation, in default of an amicable agreement, shall be fixed by the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal.

The provisions of this Article are not applicable either to concessionary contracts or to transfers of concessions.

Article 78.

All disputes which already exist, or may arise within the period of six months mentioned below, relating to contracts, other than concessionary contracts, between parties who subsequently became enemies, shall be determined by the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal, with the exception of disputes which, in accordance with the laws of neutral Powers are within the competence of the national courts of those Powers. In the latter case, such disputes shall be determined by the said national courts, to the exclusion of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal. Applications relating to disputes which, under this Article, are within the competence of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal, must be presented to the said Tribunal within a period of six months from the date of its establishment.

After the expiration of this period, disputes which have not been submitted to the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal shall be determined by the competent courts in accordance with the ordinary law.

The provisions of this Article do not apply to cases in which all the parties to the contract resided in the same country during the war and there finally disposed of their persons and their property, nor to disputes in respect of which judgment was given by a competent court before the date on which the parties became enemies.

Article 78.

All periods whatever of prescription or limitation of right of action, whether they began to run before or after the outbreak of war, shall be treated, in the territory of the High Contracting Parties as far as regards relations between enemies, as having been suspended from the 29th October 1914, until the expiration of three months after the coming into force of the present Treaty.

This provision applies, in particular, to periods of time allowed for the presentation of interest or dividend coupons, or for the presentation for payment of securities drawn for redemption or repayable on any other ground.

As regards Roumania, the above-mentioned periods shall be considered as having been suspended as from the 27th August 1916.

Article 80.

As between enemies no negotiable instrument made before the war shall be deemed to have become invalid by reason only of failure within the required time to present the instrument for acceptance or payment, or to give notice of non-acceptance or non-payment to drawers or endorsers, or to protest the instrument, nor by reason of failure to complete any formality during the war.

When the period within which a negotiable instrument should have been presented for acceptance or payment, or within which notice of non-acceptance or non-payment should have been given to the drawers or endorsers, or within which the instrument should have been protested, has expired during the war, and when the party who should have presented or protested the instrument or given notice of non-acceptance or non-payment, has failed to do so during the war, a period of three months from the coming into force of the present Treaty shall be allowed within which the presentation, notice of non-acceptance or non-payment, or protest may be made.

Article 81.

Sales effected during the war in order to realize pledges or mortgages created before the war as security for debts which have become payable, shall be deemed valid, although it may not have been possible to perform all the formalities required for notifying the debtor, subject to the express right of the said debtor to summon the creditor before the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal to render accounts, failing which the creditor will be liable to be sued in damages.

It shall be the duty of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal to settle the accounts between the parties, to investigate the conditions under which the property pledged or mortgaged was sold, and to order the creditor to make good any loss suffered by the debtor as a result of the sale if the creditor acted in bad faith or if he did not take all steps in his power to avoid having recourse to a sale or to cause the sale to be conducted in such conditions as to ensure the realization of a fair price.

The present provision is applicable only between enemies and does not extend to transactions referred to above which may have been carried out after the 1st May 1923.

Article 82.

For the purposes of the present section, the parties to a contract shall be regarded as enemies from the date on which trading between them became impossible in fact or was prohibited or became unlawful under laws, orders or regulations to which one of the parties was subject.

By way of exception to Articles 73—75, 78 and 88, contracts shall be governed by the ordinary law if they were concluded within the territory of one of the High Contracting Parties between enemies (including companies) or their agents, if the territory was an enemy country for one of the contracting parties who remained there during the war and was there able to dispose freely of his person and property.

ANNEX.

I. Life Assurance.

Paragraph 1.

Life assurance contracts entered into between an insurer and a person who subsequently became an enemy shall not be deemed to have been dissolved by the outbreak of war or by the fact of the person becoming an enemy.

Every sum which, during the war, became due upon a contract deemed not to have been dissolved in accordance with the preceding paragraph, shall be recoverable after the war. This sum shall be increased by interest at 5 per cent per annum from the date of its becoming due up to the day of payment.

If the contract has lapsed during the war, owing to non-payment of premiums or has become void from breach of the conditions of the contract, the assured, or his representatives, or the persons entitled, shall have the right at any moment within twelve months from the coming into force of the present Treaty to claim from the insurer the surrender value of the policy at the date of its lapse or annulation, together with interest at 5 per cent per annum.

Turkish nationals whose life insurance contracts entered into before the 29th October 1914, have been cancelled or reduced before the Treaty for non-payment of premiums in accordance with the provisions of the said contracts, shall have the right, within three months from the coming into force of the present Treaty, if they are still alive, to restore their policies for the whole of the amount assured. For this purpose they must, after having undergone a medical examination by the doctor of the company, the result of which the company considers satisfactory, pay the premiums in arrear with compound interest at 5 per cent.

Paragraph 2.

It is understood that life insurance contracts in money other than the Turkish pound, entered into before the 29th October 1914 between companies possessing the nationality of an Allied Power and Turkish nationals, in respect of which the premiums have been paid before and after the 13th November 1915, or even only before that date, shall be regulated, first, by determining the rights of the assured in accordance with the general conditions of the policy for the period before the 13th November 1915 in the currency stipulated in the contract at the current rate in its country of origin (for example, every amount stipulated in francs, in gold francs, or in "francs effectifs" will be paid in French francs), secondly, for the period after the 13th November 1915 in Turkish pounds paper—the Turkish pound being taken at the pre-war par value.

If Turkish nationals whose contracts were entered into in currency other than Turkish currency show that they have continued to pay their premiums since the 13th November 1915 in the currency stipulated in the contracts the said contracts shall be settled in the same currency at the current rate in its country of origin, even for the period after the 13th November 1915.

Turkish nationals whose contracts, entered into before the 29th October 1914 in currency other than Turkish currency with companies possessing the nationality of an Allied Power, are, owing to payment of premiums, still in force, shall have the right within three months after the coming into force of the present Treaty to restore their policies for the full amount, in the currency stipulated in their contract, at the current rate in its country of origin. For this purpose they must pay in this currency the premiums which have become due since the 13th November 1914. On the other hand, the premiums actually paid by them in Turkish pounds paper since that date will be repaid to them in the same currency.

Paragraph 3.

As regards insurances in Turkish pounds, settlement shall be made in Turkish pounds paper.

Paragraph 4.

The provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 do not apply to policy holders who, by an express agreement, have already settled with the insurance companies the fixation of the value of their policies and the method of payment of their premiums, nor to those whose policies shall have been finally settled at the date of the coming into force of the present Treaty.

Paragraph 5.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraphs, insurance contracts shall be considered as contracts of life insurance when they depend on the probabilities of human life, combined with the rate of interest, for the calculation of the reciprocal engagement between the two parties.

II. MARINE INSURANCE.

Paragraph 6.

Subject to the provisions therein contained, contracts of marine insurance will not be deemed to have been dissolved where the risk had attached before the parties became enemies, but the policy shall not be deemed to cover losses due to belligerent action by the Power of which the insurer was a national or by the allies of that Power.

III. FIRE AND OTHER INSURANCES.

Paragraph 7.

Subject to the reserve contained in the preceding paragraph, fire insurance contracts and all other forms of insurance contracts are not deemed to be dissolved.

SECTION III.

DEBTS.

Article 84.

The High Contracting Parties are in agreement in recognising that debts which were payable before the war or which became payable during the war under contracts entered into before the war, and which remained unpaid owing to the war, must be settled and paid, in accordance with the provisions of the contracts, in the currency agreed upon, at the rate current in its country of origin.

Without prejudice to the provisions of the Annex to Section II of this part, it is agreed that where payments to be made under a pre-war contract are represented by sums collected during the war in whole or in part in a currency other than that mentioned in the said contract, such payments can be made by handing over the sums actually collected, in the currency in which they were collected. This provision shall not affect settlements inconsistent with the foregoing provisions arrived at by voluntary agreement between the parties before the coming into force of the present Treaty.

Article 85.

The Ottoman Public Debt is by general agreement left outside the scope of this Section and of the other Sections of this Part (Economic Clauses).

SECTION IV.

INDUSTRIAL, LITERARY AND ARTISTIC PROPERTY.

Article 86.

Subject to the stipulations of the present Treaty, rights of industrial, literary and artistic property as they existed on the 1st August 1914, in accordance with the law of each of the contracting countries, shall be re-established or restored as from the coming into force of the present Treaty in the territories of the High Contracting Parties in favour of the persons entitled to the benefit of them at the moment when the state of war commenced, or of their legal representatives. Equally, rights which, but for the war, could have been acquired during the war, by means of an application legally made for the protection of industrial property or of the publication of a literary or artistic work, shall be recognized and established in favour of those persons who would have been entitled thereto, from the coming into force of the present Treaty.

Without prejudice to the rights which are required to be restored in accordance with the above provision, all acts (including the grant of licences) done by virtue of the special measures taken during the war by a legislative, executive or administrative authority of an Allied Power in regard to the rights of Turkish nationals in respect of industrial, literary or artistic property, shall remain in force and continue to have their full effect. This provision applies mutatis mutandis to corresponding measures taken by Turkish authorities in regard to the rights of the nationals of any Allied Power

Article 87.

A minimum of one year from the coming into force of the present Treaty shall be granted, without surtax or penalty of any kind, to Turkish nationals in the territory of each of the other Contracting Powers, and to the nationals of these Powers in Turkey, within which they may accomplish any act, fulfil any formality, pay any fees, and generally satisfy any obligation prescribed by the laws and regulations of the respective States for preserving or obtaining or opposing the grant of rights to industrial property which had already been acquired on the 1st August 1914, or which, but for the war, might have been acquired since that date by means of an application made before or during the war

Rights to industrial property which have lapsed by reason of any failure to accomplish any act, fulfil any formality, or pay any fees shall be revived, but subject, in the case of patents and designs, to the adoption of such measures as each Power may deem reasonably necessary for the protection of the rights of third parties who have exploited or made use of patents or designs since they had lapsed.

The period from the 1st August 1914, until the coming into force of the present Treaty, shall be excluded in calculating the time within which a patent has to be exploited or a trade-mark or design used, and it is further agreed that no patent, trade-mark or design in force on the 1st August 1914 shall be subject to revocation or cancellation by reason only of the failure to exploit such patent or use such trade-mark or design, for two years after the coming into force of the present Treaty.

Article 88.

No action shall be brought and no claim made on the one hand by Turkish nationals or persons residing or carrying on business in Turkey, and on the other hand by nationals of the Allied Powers or persons residing or carrying on their business in the territory of these Powers, nor by third parties having derived title during the war from such persons, by reason of any occurrence which has taken place within the territory of the other party, between the date of the beginning of a state of war and that of the coming into force of the present Treaty, which might be held to constitute an infringement of rights of industrial property or rights of literary or artistic property either existing at any time during the war, or revived under the provisions of Article 86.

Among the occurrences referred to above are included the use by the Governments of the High Contracting Parties, or by any person acting on their behalf, or with their consent, of rights of industrial, literary or artistic property, as well as the sale, the offering for sale or the use of products, apparatus, or any articles whatsoever to which these rights apply

Article 89.

Licences for the use of industrial property, or for the reproduction of literary or artistic works, granted before the war by or to nationals of the Allied Powers, or persons residing in their territories, or carrying on business therein, on the one hand, to or by Turkish nationals on the other hand, shall be considered as cancelled as from the date of the beginning of a state of war between Turkey and the Allied Power concerned. But in any case, the former beneficiary of a licence of this kind shall have the right within a period of six months from the coming into force of the present Treaty to require from the proprietor of the rights the grant of a new licence, the conditions of which, in default of agreement between the parties, shall be fixed by the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal referred to in Section V of this Part. The Tribunal shall have the power, where the circumstances demand it, to fix at the same time the amount which it considers fair payment for the use of the property during the war.

Article 90.

The inhabitants of territories detached from Turkey under the present Treaty shall, notwithstanding this transfer and the change of nationality consequent thereon, continue in complete enjoyment in Turkey of all the rights in industrial, literary and artistic property to which they were entitled under Ottoman law at the time of transfer.

Rights of industrial, literary and artistic property which are in existence in territories detached from Turkey under the present Treaty at the time of separation, or which are re-established or restored by the provisions of Article 86, shall be recognized by the State to which the said territory is transferred, and shall remain in existence in that territory for the same period of time as that which they would have enjoyed under Ottoman law.

SECTION V

MIXED ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL.

Article 91.

Within three months from the date of the coming into force of the present Treaty a Mixed Arbitral Tribunal shall be established between each of the Allied Powers, on the one hand, and Turkey, on the other hand.

Each of these Tribunals shall be composed of three members, two being appointed respectively by each of the Governments concerned, who shall be entitled to designate several persons from whom, according to the case in question, they will choose one to sit as a member of the Tribunal. The president shall be chosen by agreement between the two Governments concerned.

In case of failure to reach agreement within two months from the coming into force of the present Treaty, the president shall be appointed upon the request of one of the Governments concerned, from among nationals of Powers which remained neutral during the war, by the President of the Permanent Court of International Justice of The Hague.

If within the said period of two months one of the Governments concerned does not appoint a member to represent it on the Tribunal, the Council of the League of Nations will have power to proceed to the appointment of such an arbitrator upon the request of the other Government concerned.

If a member of the Tribunal should die or resign or for any reason become unable to perform his duties, he shall be replaced by the method laid down for his appointment, the above period of two months running from the date of death, resignation or inability as duly verified.

Article 93.

The seat of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunals shall be at Constantinople. If the number and character of the cases justify it, the Governments concerned shall be entitled to create in each Tribunal one or more additional Sections, the seat of which shall be in whatever place may be convenient. Each of these Sections shall be composed of a vice-president and two members appointed as laid down in the second, third, fourth and fifth paragraphs of Article 92.

Each Government shall appoint one or more agents to represent it before the Tribunal.

If, after three years from the establishment of a Mixed Arbitral Tribunal, or of one of its Sections, such Tribunal or Section has not finished its work, and if the Power on whose territory such Tribunal or Section has its seat so requests, the seat shall be removed from such territory.

Article 94.

The Mixed Arbitral Tribunals established pursuant to Articles 92 and 93 shall decide all questions within their competence under the present Treaty.

Decisions shall be taken by a majority.

The High Contracting Parties agree to regard the decisions of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunals as final and conclusive, and to render them binding upon their nationals, and to ensure their enforcement in their respective territories as soon as the decisions of the Tribunals are notified to them, without it being necessary to have them declared executory.

The High Contracting Parties further undertake that their Tribunals and authorities shall directly assist the Mixed Arbitral Tribunals in every way that is in their power, particularly as regards the transmission of notices and the collection of evidence.

Article 95.

The Mixed Arbitral Tribunals shall be guided by justice, equity and good faith.

Each Tribunal will determine the language to be used before it, and shall order such translations to be made as are necessary to ensure that the proceedings are completely understood; it will lay down rules and time limits for the procedure to be observed. These rules must be based on the following principles :—

1. The procedure shall include the presentation of a memorial and a counter-memorial respectively, with the option of presenting a reply and a rejoinder. If either of the parties asks for leave to present an oral argument he will be permitted to do so; in such case the other party will have the same right.

2. The Tribunal shall have full power to order enquiries, the production of documents, and expert examinations, to make a view, to demand any information, to hear any witnesses and to ask the parties or their representatives for any verbal or written explanations.

3. Subject to any contrary provision in the present Treaty, no claim shall be admitted after the expiry of a period of six months from the establishment of the Tribunal, except upon express authority contained in a decision of the said Tribunal and justified as an exceptional measure by considerations relating to distance or force majeure.

4. It shall be the duty of the Tribunal to hold as many sittings each week as may be needed for the prompt despatch of its business, except during vacations, which shall not exceed a total of eight weeks a year.

5. Judgment must always be given within at most two months from the end of the hearing, after which the Tribunal will at once proceed to consider its judgment.

6. Oral arguments, if any, shall be heard in public, and in all cases judgment shall be delivered in public.

7. Each Mixed Arbitral Tribunal shall be entitled to hold sittings elsewhere than in the place where its seat is established, if it considers it advantageous for the despatch of business.

Article 96.

The Governments concerned shall appoint by agreement a Secretary-General for each Tribunal, and shall each attach to him one or more Secretaries. The Secretary-General and the Secretaries shall be under the orders of the Tribunal, which with the consent of the Governments concerned shall be entitled to engage any persons whose assistance it may need.

The Secretariat of each Tribunal shall have its offices at Constantinople. The Governments concerned shall have power to establish additional offices in such other places as may be convenient.

Each Tribunal shall keep in its Secretariat the records, papers and documents relating to the cases submitted to it, and upon the completion of its duties it shall deposit them in the archives of the Government of the country where its seat is established. These archives shall always be accessible to the Governments concerned.

Article 97.

Each Government shall pay the emoluments of the member of the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal whom it appoints, as well as those of any agent or secretary appointed by it.

The emoluments of the President and those of the Secretary-General shall be fixed by agreement between the Governments concerned, and the remuneration and the general expenses of the Tribunal shall be paid in equal shares by the two Governments.

Article 137.

Subject to any agreements concluded between the High Contracting Parties, the decisions taken and orders issued since the 30th October, 1918, until the coming into force of the present Treaty by or in agreement with the authorities of the Powers who have occupied Constantinople, and concerning the property, rights and interests of their nationals, of foreigners or of Turkish nationals, and the relations of such persons with the authorities of Turkey, shall be regarded as definitive and shall give rise to no claim against those Powers or their authorities.

All other claims arising from injury suffered in consequence of any such decisions or orders shall be submitted to the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal.

Article 138.

In judicial matters, the decisions given and orders issued in Turkey from the 30th October, 1918, until the coming into force of the present Treaty by all judges, courts or authorities of the Powers who have occupied Constantinople, or, by the Provisional Mixed Judicial Commission established on the 8th December, 1921, as well as the measures taken in execution of such decisions or orders, shall be regarded as definitive, without prejudice, however, to the terms of paragraphs IV and VI of the Amnesty Declaration dated this day.

Nevertheless, in the event of a claim being presented by a private person in respect of damage suffered by him in consequence of a judicial decision in favour of another private person given as a civil matter by a military or police court, this claim shall be brought before the Mixed Arbitral Tribunal which may in a proper case, order the payment of compensation or even restitution of the property in question.

Article 139.

Prizes made during the war between Turkey and the other Contracting Powers prior to the 30th October, 1918, shall give rise to no claim on either side. The same shall apply to seizures effected after that date, for violation of the armistice, by the Powers who have occupied Constantinople.

It is understood that no claim shall be made, either by the Governments of the Powers who have occupied Constantinople or their nationals, or by the Turkish Government or its nationals, respecting small craft of all kinds, vessels of light tonnage, yachts and lighters which any of the said Governments may, between the 30th October, 1914, and the 1st January, 1923, have disposed of in their own harbours or in harbours occupied by them. Nevertheless, this stipulation does not prejudice the terms of paragraph VI of the Amnesty Declaration dated this day, nor the claims which private persons may be able to establish against other private persons in virtue of rights held before the 29th October, 1914.

PART II

CONVENTION RESPECTING CONDITIONS OF RESIDENCE AND BUSINESS AND JURISDICTION.

Article 10.

In matters of personal status, i.e., all questions relating to marriage, conjugal rights, divorce, judicial separation, dower, paternity, affiliation, adoption, capacity, majority, guardianship, trusteeship and interdiction; in matters relating to succession to personality, whether by will or on intestacy and the distribution and winding up of estates; and family law in general, it is agreed between Turkey and the other Contracting Powers that, as regards non-Moslem nationals of such Powers in Turkey, the national tribunals or other competent national authorities established in the country of which the party whose personal status is in question is a national will alone have jurisdiction.

The present stipulation does not affect the special attributions of consuls in matters of status in accordance with international law or special agreements which may be concluded, nor the right of Turkish courts to request and receive evidence respecting matters acknowledged above as being within the competence of the national tribunals or authorities of the parties concerned.

By way of exception to the first paragraph of this Article, the Turkish courts will also have jurisdiction as to matters referred to therein, if all the parties to the case submit in writing to the jurisdiction of the said courts. In such case the Turkish courts will apply the national law of the parties.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort St. George, October 14, 1924 (G.O. No. 737, Finance).

No. 214.—It has been brought to the notice of Government that a treasury officer has objected to the acceptance in deposit of all sums less than eight annas, whatever the nature of the deposits may be. The Hon'ble the Judges of the High Court, in reporting the fact, have expressed the view that the rule in G.O. No. 939, Finance, dated 26th October 1923, applies only to 'deposits in court' and not to sums which are paid into court under its orders.

2. The rule in question deals only with the re-payment of deposits and not with receipts into the treasury. It follows that sums of less than eight annas which are received in court in accordance with the directions of the court, and are not balances of deposits due for refund, should be received in the treasury.

Fort St. George, October 13, 1924 (G.O. Mis. No. 2840, L. & M.).

No. 1042.—The President, Taluk Board, Kanduker, raises the question whether local boards can lease out the pasturage in the bed of poramboke tanks vested in them, on condition that the lessee shall not interfere with the use of the water by the public or by cattle.

2. As observed in G.O. No. 877, Revenue, dated 8th April 1922, the object of vesting tanks in local bodies is to give them a general supervision over public sources of water-supply used for drinking purposes. The Government consider that it will be quite impracticable to lease out the pasturage in the beds of the tanks without interfering with the use of the water by cattle or by human beings. Such leases should not therefore be given.

Fort St. George, October 9, 1924.

No. 1043.—The following G.O. No. 735, Finance, dated the 9th October 1924, is published :—

SUGARCANE CROP OF 1924-25—SECOND REPORT.

[On an average of the five years ending 1922–23, the area under sugarcane in the Madras Presidency has represented some 4·1 per cent of the total area under sugarcane in India.]

The area planted with sugarcane up to the end of September 1924 is estimated at 165,400 acres as compared with 126,000 acres estimated on the corresponding date of last year, or a decrease of 13 per cent.

2. The decrease in area is fairly general and is due to the insufficient supply of water in the irrigation sources owing to the poor north-east monsoon of the previous year and to the reduced yields obtained in the previous year

3. The crop suffered from drought in South Arcot, North Arcot, and Salem while it was affected by floods on the West Coast. The condition of the crop is fairly good in the other districts If the season continues in the present state, the seasonal factor for the Presidency will work out at 98 per cent of the average. On this basis, the yield is estimated at 228,200 tons of jaggery against 316,700 tons on the corresponding date of last year.

4. Figures by districts are given below :—

GROUNDNUT CROP OF 1924-25—FIRST REPORT

[On an average of the five years ending 1922–23, the area under groundnut in the Madras Presidency has represented 35·1 per cent of the total area under groundnut in India.]

The area sown with groundnut up to the end of September 1924 is estimated at 1,456,900 acres as compared with 1,053,900 acres estimated on the corresponding date of last year, or an increase of 38 per cent.

2. The area has increased except in Ganjam, Anantapur, and Salem. The decrease in Ganjam is nominal as last year's forecast was an overestimate. Sowing rains were inadequate in Anantapur and Salem ; the decrease in Anantapur is also partly due to increase of the area under food crops owing to the prevalent famine. In other districts the season was favourable and earlier than last year and this coupled with the high price of the crop is responsible for the increase in area. In the Carnatic and Central districts, the area has increased from 312,200 acres to 830,200 acres. The area under this crop is steadily increasing in Guntur where it is grown in rotation with tobacco.

3. The summer crop has been harvested and fair yields obtained. The condition of the standing crops is generally good. In the Circars, Kurnool, and Bellary, timely rains were received at intervals during the growth of the crop and these were very beneficial to the growth and bearing of pods. A bumper crop is therefore expected.

PADDY CROP OF 1924-25—FIRST REPORT.

[On an average of the five years ending 1922-23, the area under paddy in the Madras Presidency has represented 13·4 per cent of the total area under paddy in India.]

The area sown with paddy up to the end of September 1924 is estimated at 6,721,000 acres as compared with 6,631,000 acres estimated on the corresponding date of last year, or an increase of 1·1 per cent.

2. The area has increased in Ganjam and Vizagapatam from 1,500,000 acres to 1,980,000 acres owing the favourable season. The area in the Carnatic also has increased by 56 per cent owing to good rains in September, but the bulk of the crop has yet to be sown after the north-east monsoon rains. There have been slight decreases in most of the other districts owing to the insufficient supply of water in the irrigation sources.

3. As a result of the heavy floods in July, the paddy crop on 23,000 acres in the inlake of Ernad, Walluvanad and Ponnani of Malabar was lost. Paddy in the low-lying fields bordering on the Nutravati and Chandragiri rivers in South Kanara was also lost. Four thousand acres were silted up with sand in the Tanjore district and 6,000 acres in the Trichinopoly district, while first crop paddy on 7,000 acres and 4,200,000 lb. of paddy in seed-beds were destroyed in the Tanjore district and 5,000 acres of crops, mainly paddy, washed away in the Trichinopoly district.

4. First crop paddy has been harvested on the West Coast and in Coimbatore, Trichinopoly and Tanjore. In South Kanara, the crop on high-lying lands has given a bumper yield and this has largely made up for the reduced yield in the areas affected by floods. In Malabar, yields slightly below normal are reported owing to the floods. Fair yields have been obtained in the other districts.

5. The condition of the crop in the Circars is satisfactory owing to well-distributed rainfall. The crop was affected by drought in the Carnatic, Chittoor, North Arcot and Salem, but has been benefited by the September rains. A good yield is expected in the Periyar tract. The condition of the crop is fair in the other districts.

2. The wood will be sold per ton and the contractor's bid will be for each lot as arranged in the depot. Purchasers are advised to inspect in advance each lot put up for sale. They must accept the classification.

3. The bids will be per ton.

4. The sales will be subject to confirmation by the Conservator of Forests, who does not bind himself to accept the highest or any bid.

5. Each purchaser shall, immediately after a lot is knocked down to him, sign his name at the foot of the sale list in the column provided for the purpose. Such signature will be held as an admission on his part of having the lot.

6 Immediately after the sales each purchaser, if his offer has been accepted by the Conservator of Forests, for that lot, will be furnished with a memorandum showing the total amount due by him and shall remit 50 per cent of the same into the Imperial Bank of India at Coimbatore or Madras, before 10th January 1925, and shall similarly remit the balance before 1st March 1925, failing which the money already remitted shall lapse to Government and the District Forest Officer will be at liberty to resell the lot at the risk of the original purchaser who shall be liable for any loss but shall not participate in any profit accruing by the resale.

7. The purchaser must pay the full value and take delivery of the wood before 15th March 1925. If he or his accredited agent does not attend on or before that date for the weighment of the sandalwood purchased, no further weighment will be made and the weight recorded in the depot books (which is the weight recorded immediately after final chipping and that notified at the time of sale) must be accepted by him.

If however on re-weighment an excess should be found, the purchaser shall have no title to the excess.

8. On each purchaser's presenting to the Range Officer, Satyamangalam, chalans as proof that the whole of his purchase has been paid for it will be weighed in his or his agent's presence and the quantity paid for handed over to him.

No further cleaning or classification of the sandalwood will be undertaken by the Forest department nor will purchasers be allowed to clean any wood previous to weighment. The classification, cleaning and weighment as determined by the Forest Department must be accepted.

9 The purchaser will be allowed reasonable time, not exceeding one month from the date of delivery after weighment to remove the wood. But after it has once been weighed and handed over, if the purchaser fails to remove all the wood within one month demurrage will be charged at the rate of two rupees per ton per mensem from the date of sale until the wood is finally removed.

10 No sandalwood shall be removed from the depot till a licence to remove it signed by the officer of the Forest Department who weighed out the wood, shall have been obtained and till every piece of sandalwood that can be stamped has been stamped with the Ranger's 'sale hammer.'

11 The officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to stop the sale at any time without giving any reason to the intending purchasers.

12 The wood purchased by each purchaser shall be in the depot at the purchaser's risk from the date of sale until it is removed.

13 The contractor shall bear the cost of taking delivery of sandalwood.

14. Further particulars can be had on application to the District Forest Officer, North Coimbatore.

15. Each intending bidder should remit an earnest money deposit of Rs. 1,000 before bidding which should be in Madras notes of Rs. 1,000 or Rs. 500. It would be still more convenient if the intending bidders tender at the time of sale receipted treasury chalans for this sum of Rs. 1,000.

16. The earnest money deposit of unsuccessful bidders will be returned soon after the sale is closed, and those of successful bidders will be credited towards the first instalment due.

3. No person will be allowed to bid at the auction unless he furnishes an earnest-money deposit of Rs. 1,000 (one thousand) at the time of sale in each depot and unless he signs his name in the sale notice to imply his acceptance of the conditions contained in that notice. No person will, however, be allowed to deposit and bid jointly at the sale.

The deposit of unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them at the conclusion of the sale.

4. The sales will be subject to confirmation by the Conservator of Forests who does not bind himself to accept the highest or any bid. It is possible that the Conservator of Forests will himself be present at the time of sale and the result of sale may, therefore, be announced on the spot.

5. Each purchaser shall, immediately after a lot is knocked down to him, sign his name at foot of the sale list in the column provided for the purpose. Such signature shall be held as an admission on his part of having bought the lot.

6. Immediately after the sale, each purchaser, if his offer has been accepted by the Conservator of Forests for that lot, will be furnished with a memorandum showing the total amount due by him and shall pay 50 per cent of the same, less the earnest deposit referred to above, into any of the Government treasuries at Vellore or Tirupattur or remit it into the Imperial Bank of India, Madras, or Vellore, payable to the Accountant-General in Madras, before the 15th January 1925 and the balance before 1st March 1925 or before removal of the sandalwood purchased from the depot premises, whichever is earlier.

7 Should any purchaser fail to make the payment as indicated above on the due dates, the sandalwood purchased by him will be resold at his risk, the earnest deposit made by him forfeited to Government, and any loss accruing by such resale recovered from him as if it were arrears of land revenue. Should, however, any profit arise by such resale, the defaulter shall not participate in it.

8 The purchaser will be allowed a reasonable time to remove the wood he has paid for: this will be fixed by the District Forest Officer with regard to the quantity purchased, but will in no case extend beyond the 11th March 1925, after which date demurrage on wood paid for will be charged at Re. 1-0 per diem and a lien will be retained on the wood till such charge is paid.

The wood will be at the purchaser's risk from the date of weighment.

9. On presenting the chalan to the officer in charge of the depot for the payment of value of the sandalwood purchased by such merchant, the wood will be weighed as it is, in the depot, in the presence of the purchaser or his accredited agent by an officer of the department not lower in rank than that of a Forest Ranger. No further cleaning or classification of the sandalwood will be undertaken by the Forest Department, nor will purchasers be allowed to clean any wood previous to weighment. The classification, cleaning and weighment, as determined by the Forest Department, must be accepted. Should any deficiency be found when weighing, the value of the deficiency will be refunded to the purchaser or if an excess is found, it shall be paid for by him.

10. The purchaser shall bear the cost of weighment at the time of delivery.

11. No purchaser may remove any wood until he has paid for the full quantity purchased.

12. Special endeavours will be made if required to secure railway facilities to the purchasers for the transport of their sandalwood by rail.

13. No sandalwood can be removed from the depot, till a licence to remove sandalwood signed by the Officer of the Forest Department who weighed out the wood shall have been obtained and till every piece of sandalwood that can be stamped has been stamped with the district 'Sale hammer.'

14. The officer conducting the sale shall be at liberty to stop the sale at any time without giving any reason to the intending purchaser.

CULTIVATION STATEMENT—APRIL TO AUGUST 1924.

(On an average of the five years ending 1923-24, the area sown from April to August represents 34 per cent of the cultivation on dry lands and 42 per cent on wet lands.)

General.—The monsoon gathered strength again in August and gave excessive rains on the West Coast till the middle of the month. The Circars received a fair amount of rainfall except in the second week of the month. In the rest of the Presidency, the monsoon was poor except in the third week when rainfall was general.]

Railway traffic in the south of the Presidency was largely, though not completely, restored in the month. Relief measures were organized in the areas affected by the floods and the work of reclaiming damaged lands and reconstructing houses began.

Irrigation water was generally insufficient except in the main river systems and on the West Coast. Tanks in parts of the Circars and Deccan received partial supplies in the month. Most of the rainfed tanks in the Carnatic and Central districts were either empty or contained scanty supplies. The water supply was inadequate in parts of the Tanjore district owing to the silting up at the Grand Anicut and the breaches caused by the floods.

The deficiency in the area sown in the Circars was made up to a large extent in the month. In the rest of the Presidency also, the sowings in the month were generally satisfactory. The transplanting or sowing of paddy was fairly general outside the West Coast. Dry grains were sown in parts of Guntur, the Deccan, and Central districts. Ground-nut was sown in parts of South Arcot, the Deccan, and Central districts. Other crops sown were cholam in Kistna, South Arcot, and Madura, cumbu in Nellore and South Arcot, ragi in Chingleput and Madura, korra in the Deccan, and cotton in Guntur and the Deccan.

2. Dry lands.—The area sown from April to August 1924 was 16 per cent more than the average and 30 per cent more than last year owing to the receipt of fairly good rains after last year's bad season. The area sown in the Central districts was nearly double that of last year.

3. Wet lands.—The area sown from April to August 1924 was nearly the same as the average and 4 per cent greater than last year. There was a decrease in Ganjam and a fairly general increase elsewhere, especially in the Godavari and Kistna deltas and in Malabar.

4. Figures by districts are given in the statement appended.

Review on retail prices for August 1924.—There was a further rise in the retail prices of food-grains in August 1924 in the south of the Presidency owing to the losses due to the floods in July and to the isolation caused by the temporary cutting off of means of communication.

2. The price of rice rose still further by over 15 per cent in Tanjore and Tinnevelly and by 5 to 10 per cent on the West Coast and in the Nilgiris. There was also a rise of about 8 to 12 per cent in South Arcot, Salem, Coimbatore, and Trichinopoly.

3. The price of dry grains rose by 5 to 10 per cent in the south of the Presidency and also in Ganjam, Godavari, Anantapur, and Nellore.

4. Prices in the month were generally higher than in August 1923 except in Ramnad district. The rise in price was as high as 20 per cent in the case of rice in Ganjam, Madras, South Arcot, the Central districts, Tanjore, Tinnevelly, and Malabar and of dry grains in the Deccan, Salem, Coimbatore, Trichinopoly, Tanjore, and the Nilgiris.
